

President's Message

"When it gets this cold in Florida..."

- ❖ You have to put on long pants and even wear shoes.

- ❖ You might see a Florida politician with his hand in his own pocket. (paraphrasing Johnny Carson)
- ❖ You can tell what kind of sheets everyone uses on their beds... because they're covering their plants in their yards.
- ❖ Fish are congregating near the shores of the Indian River Lagoon en masse, trying to stay in the warmest waters.
- ❖ Iguanas start falling out of trees as their bodies shut down and they lose their grip.
- ❖ Oranges are given an icy bath, ironically, for protection.

-continued-

By the way, forecasters say this cold spell will likely break records for continuous cold temperatures in many parts of the state! But, if you're brave enough to venture outdoors, consider joining us in February for LAB's annual Theatre Night - we would love to have you!

Thank you,

Nathan Hosburgh
