

Minutes from Continuing Education Program
Fall Potpourri Event 2012
Keiser University Culinary Dining Room
Melbourne, FL
Friday, October 19, 2012

---

The event began at 2:00pm.

There were 23 attendees.

LAB President, Janice Murray, and Vice-President Kellie Sparks, welcomed members to the Fall Potpourri event and introduced the first guest speakers, Ms. Lena Stouppe and Ivy Hover.

Ms. Stouppe and Ms. Hover, from Melbourne Public Library's Reference Department, gave a wonderful presentation regarding the Kindle, the Nook, and electronic books. A question and answer period followed.

Janice Murray introduced our next guest speaker, Ms. Susan O'Hara and her husband John.

Susan spoke about her experience as a Storytelling Librarian at the Central Brevard Library and Reference Center and gave a great demonstration of her creative talents.

Members also participated in a raffle with proceeds benefiting LAB's scholarship for information professionals.

UCF Librarian Barbara Alderman spoke about her enjoyable experience at the ALA Anaheim 2012 Conference.

Lastly, our new Director of Brevard County Libraries, Mr. Jeff Thompson, spoke about his new role as Director and shared his interest in amateur filmmaking with the group.

President Janice Murray presented Vice-President Kellie Sparks with plaque of appreciation for LAB workshop coordination.

Workshop concluded at 4:00pm.
